Validation of Immunization: Please refer to the passage below issued by the U.S. Department of State-Bureau of Consular Affairs website for more information regarding vaccinations required for entry to some countries.

Some countries require foreign visitors to carry an International Certificate of Vaccination, also known as a Yellow Card, or other proof that they have had certain inoculations or medical tests before entering or transiting their country. Before you travel, check the country information and contact the foreign embassy of the country to be visited or transited through for current entry requirements.

Claflin University requires that scholars visit the provided link for more information about the advised medical precautions before engaging the desired destination.
